DEDICATION OF THE NEW MA-

SONIC HALL -According to an

Atkinson, as Grand Chaplain; John Nichols, as Grand Marshal. The dedicatory ceremonies were made more interesting by being interspersed with music by the choir of the Presbyterian church of this city, composed of the following ladies and gentlemen : Mrs Baumann, soprano; Miss Hattie Jordan, sos prano; Mrs Julius Lewis, alto; Mrs Geo Jordan, alto; L D Heartt, tenor; Geo Jordan, tenor; W S Primrose, basso; W Busbee, basso; Prof Baumann, organist.

The decication of the Lodge having been concluded, acting Grand Master Grissom introduced the oras tor of the occasion in the following language: Brethren, Ladies and Gentlemen: When we assemble in the name of masonry to dedicate this hall to the officers of Virtue, Truth and Benevolence, it is well to win additional consecration from the holy memory of this honored day-the feast of the youngest of the apostles and the last o lay his armor down-the beloved disciple, St. John, the divine-highest title ever uttered on earth; so humble that he never names himself; so humble that God committed to his watchful care the sacred person of his own mother. Happy is my task to invite the recital of the love which illumined the life St. John, by a brother whose own spotless fame and shining labors in law, science and oratory, have anticipated all I might proudly say of him, and found already acknowledgment in your hearts. Fab. H. Busbee-child of your hearthstone, a craftsman tried and true, will perform this pleasant duty. Let us

Mr. Busbee addressed his audience for the space of forty minutes on the origin and mission of Masonry. It was one of the most pleasing and at the same time instructive discourses we have heard for many a day, evidencing the fact that the speaker had studied his subject closely. It was filled with information of great interest to the Masonic fraternity generally, and would prove but little less interesting to the general reader. We trust Mr. Busbee may be induced to yourself, I have to advise you that allow his the address to be published At the conclusion of Mr. Busbee's remarks, acting Grand Master Grissom proceeded to install the officers of Hiram Lodge, No. 40, Wm. G. Hill, No. 218, and Raleigh Chapter, No. 10, (which officers we have already published.) The Lodge thus dedicated is a beautiful room, capable of seating comfortably some 350 persons, is handsomely furnished, and reflects credit on the Masonic fraternity of

As a consequence, the city treasury has been somewhat enriched -The authorities inform us, however, that the Christmas holidays passed with unusual quietness in the way of drunkenness and consequent disturbances, the most of the cases coming before the Mayor being for offences committed since Saturday. The Mayor has shown an unusual amount of leniency, he taking into consideration the fact that Christmas comes but once a year.

AN ELEGANT AFFAIR.-Mr. Lenn H. Adams Monday night entertained at his country residence, some eight miles from Raleigh, a large number of friends from Raleigh and the country adjoining his residence. We regret our inability to attend, but learn it was a most elegant affair, dancing | sible to conceive of a twin piece of day morning. The supper was all his guests could desire, reflecting credit upon Mr. Adams and his lady.

A party of gentlemen from this city on Monday night, while en route to a gentleman's house a short distance east of Raleigh, with an ambulance as their mode of conveyance, were capsized in a ditch on the Holleman road. Nobody hurt, fortunately, but the head of one of our enterprising merchants is said to have presented rather a ludicrous appearance as it was found protruding from the top of the ambulance, the said top having proved rather more ' breakable" than

Major Hearne's Superintendencythe Effort to Supplant Him-Correspondence with the Secretary of the Treasury-the Political Expediency of the Measure-Settle, Keogh, Smith and Others Moving on their Platform for 1876.

Determined, on resuming our labors after the holidays, to get at the facts in regard to the Superintendency of the Government Building in this city, with which Superintendency Rumor has been busy for the past week, we yesterday visited Major Wm. A. Hearne, the present Superintendent, for that purpose. We found him confined to his room, quite feeble and emaciated, having lost between sixty and seventy pounds, and suffering from acute rheumatism of the head and shoulders, chest and Stating the object of our visit to be to give the public the benefit of the truth in the matter, Major Hearne said the first intimation he received that an attempt was being made to supercede him came on the l5th inst., greatly to his surprise, as the Department at Washington had always expressed great satisfaction with his management on the building. He pretty soon ascertained who the conspirators against him were, and devined the charges to be the old cry,

"employing Democrats!" On the 17th inst, he sent to the Secretary of Treasury his resignation, in the following words: "I hereby tender my resignation as Superintendent of the work. In doing so I reserve to myself the right to withdraw this paper, if, upon my own vindication, and a proper representation by my friends, I deem it expedient to do so. To take effect December 31st inst." Then followed on the 20th inst, in a letter to the Secretary, his vindication against charges of employing Democrats to the exclusion of Republicans, which showed that Democrats had been employed, but that he had good and satisfactory reasons therefor, to the extent, in fact, of Departmental sug-

This communication consisted o transcripts of the records of his ofice, letters, documents, &c., and was worn to by Superintendent Hearne.

On the 22nd the resignation was accepted by the Secretary, closing his letter in these words: "Referring to the communication in vindication of the Department has no complaint to make against you; therefore a vindication was unnecessary, but considering all things it was deemed expedient to make the change."

Q .- What was the scope of your vindication? A .- I summarised the close of the latter as follows: Upon the efficiency of my management and the progress and economy of the work; the strength, durability and general character of the work; the honest application of materials purchased for the building; and my good faith to the Republican party. On all these points I challenged comparsion and invited examination; to all of which omes the reply of the Secretary: the Department has no complaint

Q -What do you suppose is the expediency?

A -"I prefer not to speak of that Q -Who were the parties in Wash ington moving against you? A .- "I have been informed that Judge Settle, Mr. Thos. B. Keogh Major W. A. Smith, Judge Tourgee, J. C. L. Harriss, with Hon, John Hy-

A .- " I have the best and most positive evidence that Logan Harriss, the evening before he left for Washington, inquired into and ascertained my condition to be that I could not rise from my bed."

Q .- "Well what do you think of uch conduct?" A .- "Some of the press, and as far as I have heard, all the respectable people of the city have expressed my opinion of such conduct. But here is what I said in my letter to the Secretary of the Treasury :- " My assailants were not unaware of my condition. They knew that I was prostrate on a sick bed from which I could not rise, and I care not what may be their charges, they appear to have selected their time, when they felt I could neither detect nor pursue them. It is imposbeing kept up until a late hour yester- infamy to this, unless we could imagine the assassin crawling under the bed of a dying man to stab him in his last moments." " If there is anything which could justify a want of party fealty, it is that necessity which compels an alliance with such blatherskites, shysters and slang-whangers."

O. Then, Mr. Harriss is to be Superintendent after the 31st? A. " That is the programme unless as is contained in the following lines: "For time at last sets all things even; And if we do but watch the bour, There never yet was human power, Which could evide, if unforgiven, The patient search, and vigil long, of him who treasures up a wrong."

In the course of the above interview, Major Hearne stated that l'ourgee was after the Pension Ageucy held by Mr. C. H. Belvin, of this city, and that Loge Harriss had long wanted the same place for his father; but both finding that neither could succeed, fighting the other, they had combined for the two places; that he believed Judge Settle and Colonel Keogh had nothing to do with the affair, and that Major Smith had been imposed upon by misrepresen-tations. In this interview with Major Hearne our object was to ascertain what political significance there was in his removal, knowing full well Republicanism only acted from two motives-that of furthering individnal self-interests and obtaining some party end. We learned sufficient to know that while the inevitable Cebe Harriss is to be the immediate party benefitted, he is only the tool in the hands of his sharper Radical friends to endeavor to gain a stronger foothold in the campaign of 1876.

THOSE HORNS .- " Horns" of a certain character are supposed to belong more peculiarly to Christmas times, but on Saturday last our usually quiet city was for the nonce a perfect bedlam, caused by the incessant tooting of tin horns in every quarter and in every nook of the town. There were a strange mixture of big horns, little herns, horns of every conceivable shape and character, and big niggers, little niggers, white boys and many white men too-all mixed into one general medley, making the most discordant and unearthly sounds and causing our timid and nervous citizens to utter imprecations both loud and deep. Ere another Christmas approaches we shall endeavor to retire to "some vast wilderness," away from the haunts of men and boys and the tooting of horns.

We learn that over a thousand large sized tin horns were sold Saturday by two of our tin merchants. We greatly fear that it will be as difficult for these merchants to enter the gates of heaven when Gabriel shall his final horn as it is for a camel to pass through the eve of a needle.

TEMPERANCE LECTURES.-Mr. George M. Dutcher, a temperance lecturer who is at present touring the United States in the interest of the temperance cause, delivered a lecture in Metropolitan Hall on Sunday afternoon to a large audience. His lecture was drawn principally from his rocks, but could not tell the names own experience, he having felt the evil effects of intemperance, and was consequently the more effective. He is a clear reasoner, a good speaker, and evidences the fact that his heart is in the work. Again on Monday night was there a large audience at the hall to hear Mr. Dutcher deliver another lecture upon the same subject, this time being assisted by Mr. Theo. N. Ramsay, the temperance lecturer for this State, who delivered an address of an hour's length.

A BEAUTIFUL CHRISTMAS TREE. -In speaking of the Christmas trees arranged last Friday night by some of the churches of this city we alluded only incidentally to the one at the parsonage of the Presbyterian church. The every arrangement of this tree was beautiful, reflecting great credit on the managers of the affair, and being present when our old friend Claus was distributing the good things that had grown on it, we were struck with the great pleasure experienced by both the old and the young. These occasions are looked ipations by the Sunday School scholars. NEGRO KILLED.-A negro mar named Jim Rice has been lodged in Wake jail for killing on Monday another negro not known, on the premises of Mr. G. W. Atkinson, near Apex. The deceased had stolen $5 from a blind negro, and being pursued by Rice refused to halt, when the latter shot him down killing him. Rice surrendered to the authorities

SUNDAY MAILS .- We are informed by the Post-office department that during the continuance of the present schedule on the route between Goldsboro and Greensboro the agents on the mail trains will run daily, including Sundays. At the Yorkville Police Court, Sunday, Henry Reenz was accused of having sent a challenge to Dr. James on to fight a duel. Benjamin F. Hill was charged with complicity the challenge, but was discharged. Reenz was committed to await result of medical inquiry as to his sanity. The affair is said to have grown out of a pension claim which Reenz had against the United States Government, in which he alleges to have been defeated by Dr. Ferguson's testimony.

A PATAL AFFRAY IN CHAR-LOTTE. One Negro Killed and Eight or Te

Rumors of a serious conflict or rio n Charlotte on Saturday reached ere Sunday evening, but owing to the suspension of the Observer for the holidays, we received the first authentie information of the difficulty yesterday evening from the Democrat and Southern Home. Says the Democrat:

Wounded.

For the first time in the past 25 years a very serious and fatal affray occurred in this city on Christmas afternoon, in which over 100 whites and blacks were engaged. The scene was Trade and College streets and at the Square where those streets cross have endeavored to get the facts as to the origin of the difficulty and what we state (as brief as possible we think is correct. Policeman Joe On informs us that early in the afternoon he found a white man from the country named Tom Wilson, drunk, and engaged in a wrangle with sev eral drunken negroes. Mr. Orr took hold of Wilson and started off with him, at the same time ordering the negroes to stand back and let Wilson one as he would take him off. Several negroes continued to follow, taunting Wilson and making threats, and finally they began throwing rocks at both Wilson and Policeman Orrone knocking Wilson off his mule and another striking the Policeman on the leg, inflicting a painful wound.

After Wilson was being led off a negro man ran up behind him and hit him on the back of the head or neck with a rock. After it was seen that the ne roes continued to assail Wilson and inter-fere with the policeman, several white men went forward and endeavored to drive back the negroes, when they (the whites) were assailed with a shower of rocks. Soon afterwards an indiscriminate firing of pistols commenced and continued until about 30 shots had been fired. At the close of the firing it was found that a negro from the country, named Shep-pard Johnson, was killed, and eight or ten others wounded. The man who was killed was considered the leader of the negroes and is said to have been a bad man. He it was who, early in the affray, made an un-provoked assault on Mr. Chas. H. Elms, on the sidewalk, and after-and threw rocks. By the interference of some gentlemen the combatants were separated and the crowd dispersed into little wards got in the middle of the street

sqads in various directions. Our account of the unfor unate occurrence is necessarily brief, as we write Monday morning just before going to press, but we believe that what we have said is strictly correct, for we get the information Policeman Orr, who was for some time in the midst of the battle, and from impressions made on us by viewing the fight from the platform in front of our of-We could plainly see the firing of pistols and throwing of Orr is positive and decided in his tatement that after he had arrested the drunken white man (Wilson, several negro men followed and continued to assail him, and refused to desist when he (the Policeman) several times ordered them to let the man alone; and, he thinks, that was the cause of the fatal affray. Coroner Alexander began the inquest over the dead man on Sunday and will continue it to-day. As the result of yesterday's investigation, a warrant was issued for the arrest of horse drover from Kentucky, Mr. Scott Faris, white. We do not know that he has yet been found.

There are a great many good-dis-posed colored men in this community, and there are many very bad ones. After the affray we heard several negro men and women making violent threats of what they would do at night or hereafter, and we call ed the attention of Policeman Hailey to a squad of bad fellows, which he soon quieted. Notwithstanding all the violent threats of a few bad ne-Saturday night than they have been for several years—but few persons were out, and no disturbance of any sort occurred from the termination urday up to the present time, and we feel sure no other difficulties will

The white people of this commu-nity treat the colored people as well as they are treated anywhere in the world, and they are always willing to do them justice, but they had better understand now that they will not be tolerated in threats, and will be sure to suffer in conflicts with the whites. Good men of both colors are anxious to preserve the peace, and they much regret the occurrence of Saturday last.

Says the Southern Home :

Early on Saturday it was noticed that more than the usual degree of holiday drunkenness was prevalent, though as fire-works were not allowed, the rowdyism proceeded no farther than noisy shouting, cursing and swaggering on the sidewalks About 3 p. m., Thomas Wilson, a countryman, being under the influence of liquor, pushed his way into a group of negroes, near the corner of Trade and College streets, producing a quarrel, after which he was seen on the ground fighting with one or more negroes. In the Sheppard Johnson, colored, received a blow on the head, which drew blood, and so enraged him that he staggered to the pavement and seized to be passing. The mob of negroes gathered around, and several gentlemen started to assist Captain Elms, when a volley was poured into them by the negroes.

John Faris, a Kentucky horse dealer, while riding down street, found himself a target for pistol practice, two balls mortally wounding hi horse. He then returned fire as did several other whites. The alarm spread fast-stores were shut-wo men screamed—weapons were sought for, and recruits for both sides assembled rapidly. "Shep" Johnson blindly drunk, shouted for his crow-"Shep" Johnson, to follow, threw up his arms and fell dead, shot through the heart. At this the negroes took to their heels, and Abdel Kores, at his best speed, could not have caught them. negroes were wounded-one badly. Another, Napoleon Pickenpack, got

THE WEEKLY NEWS is the cheapest paper published in North Carolina. It is only one dollar per year, postage paid, contains 32 columns of plain printed news from every section of the country, and important advertisements. Always Cash.

"Where did be get it?" will be a national question when one hears of the sale of Grant's land-793 acres at $300 per acre, realizing the sum of $237,900. A nice little sum of itself, but only a title of what our Republican President has laid up for himself in the last six years. The "third term" has very solid charms for him.

It is stated that last year the dog tax vielded the State of Tennessee $300,000. This is a bonanza North Carolina has yet to open. Think of the million of curs that are vet to be called upon to contribute to the wealth and glory of the State. There is nothing so mean that has not its uses. The idle vermins that have been all along drones will flud a certain kind of greatness thrust upon them when they are made to contribute to the public welfare, and their owners will have a feeling of his false glory, and it will take that self approbation, that while many of them do not pay their own poll tax, they furnish representatives who will pay as much into the public treasury. Let the good day come when this fruitful subject of taxation will be added.

than the paper for which he writes, and says that the "selection of some notorious bad men for Judges (in South Carolina) will intensify feelings" already aroused against the Republican party. He says this in connection with Morton's agitation of the Southern question. How true it is, that the North is out of all patience with the way the Republican party has managed affairs in the reconstructed Southern States, we cannot say. If there is anything like common sense in existence, they must see the contrast between those States which have resumed the management of their own affairs and those where the principles of reconstruction still govern. Nothing, after all, is going to overwhelm fanaticism and strip party rule of its malignity except self interest, and the North will come thoroughly to its senses when it realizes that Republican rule at the South has been the deadliest enemy to Northern prosperity.

THE Marion Star says there was perfect pandemonium in that village a day or two after the snnouncement of the election of the last batch of South Carolina Judges, the negroes frantic over the elevation of their color to the bench, and the whites exasperated at the ignominy put upon them. Both these demonstrations of character are natural, and will keep the condition of things irreconcilable. The negroes will see nothing but a victory for the race. The whites will see nothing but the infamy of such selections of men entrusted with the arbitration upon life and property.

We have yet to see a single Republican paper condemning the election of Moses and Whipper. They overlook the fact, patent to impartial judgment, that in the elevation of such infamous material as ful lesson. the representatives of their party, they confirm the estimate which all mankind is steadily reaching, that the Republican party is the special haven for all crime and corruption. But it overreaches itself when it defends so violent an insult to intelligence and to common honesty, to good order, to public and private interests, when Moses and Whipper are put forward as the exponents of does, the stain of wrong about every party principles. No party can stand | act of the whites. Whilst we may such a strain as that.

STONEWALL JACKSON AND JOHN BROWN.

A parallel, unequal in its incidents and infamous in its references, since the late attraction of interest to Stonewall Jackson, some of the extremest of Republican papers are attempting to make between him and the inciendiary of Harper's Ferry. Reason would seem to be dethroned and the very madness of party spirit to possess those who place side by side him whom the fairest of his foes have assigned to the ranks of the hero pure, brave, chivalrous and governed throughout his brief and brilliant career by the highest of patrotic motives, guided by the purest of christian principles, and the fanatic John Brown, secret, furtive, murderous, and the most deadly and traiterous animosity to the constitution of the country to which he owed his duty. It seems to have been forgotten that in the madness of his zeal for negro emancipation he had deliberately planned the overthrow of the government of the United States, and though his plans were absurd and his means contemtible, the animus of the conspirator and the traitor developed itself in every act. He formed outside of the country, in the Dominion of Canada, a constitution embracing a plan for the establishment of a provisional government of the United States, with himself as commander in chief and with one of his associates as Secretary of State. Military commissions were issued to his friends and partizans. Their operations were opened by the midnight seizure of Harper's Ferry, and the murder of those who refused to join them, as well as the murder of a number of prominent and unresisting men. John Brown was nothing more than the murderous fanatic, brave but brutal, and in a healthier state of public sentiment would have been assigned at the time to his proper level. Unfortunately he touched the key note of the passion that burned so furiously against the South, and the assassin, the incendiary and the traitor, has been elevated to the rank of the martyr. His partisaus cannot yet divest him of time which will display the character of Stonewall Jackson in its true heroic proportions before all mankind to bring John Brown down from his unstable pedestal and make his name execrable as a felon. Se cret plots may never compare with bold and open action, cowardly mur-THE Washington correspondent | der cannot be named in the presence of the Baltimore American, Radical, of life given up on the battlefield, is somewhat more free of speech and the infidel creed of the murderer of Harper's Ferry shrinks into darkness before the holy faith of the christian warrior, Stonewall Jack-

THE CHARLOTTE RIOT.

Writing when we have nothing but verbal information of the late fatal transaction at Charlotte, we are without authentic information of the causes which led to results so much to be deplored. Even upon the supposition that the whites were entirely blameless in the incipiency of the affair-and that is our present information—the issue has the unfortunate effect of re-opening the fountains of hostile feeling which unwise or unfriendly interference from the North has kept open and which the patience and forbearance of the Southern people have with so much self denial kept closed.

For the first time the blood of the negro has been shed in North Carolina on comparatively a large scale in one of those aggressive movements the negroes have been so fond of provoking. Insolent in their fancied superiority in numbers, confident in the ever ready possession of arms, reliant upon the support of the party at Washington, a negro mob is always easily collected, easily excited, and demonstrative of the most bloody-hostility. The whites have prudently deported themselves. and while at Wilmington, at Goldsboro, at Raleigh dreadful collisions have been imminent, because pushed by the negro to the extreme limits of forbearance, fortunately, so far there has been that self-control among the whites that the storm has been hushed without bursting in destructive fury, Charlotte affords the first example in the State where deadly weapons have been used by the whites. Used, too, with an effect which it is hoped will impart a use-

Nevertheless, such is the temper of the Republican leaders, that even this measure of self-protection, this unpremeditated application of the first law of nature, will be used against the South as another symptom of Southern hostility to the negro. Philanthropy or partizanship has gone mad, and there is the gloss of right about everything the negro regret this unjust sentiment in one respect, we despise it in every other. We are willing to sacrifice much for that perfect harmony so essential to the prosperity of the country, but we will not purchase that peace at the sacrifice of every manly impulse. Nor will we think that peace worth enjoying which is purchased by the surrender to a half savage power the custody of law and of public order. If the defence and preservation of these costs some bloodshed, and this cost offends the powers that be, we can only say that these things must be until the negro learns that subordination to the asages of law which has given the Anglo-Saxon his capacity for self government. When the negro endeavors to rule by force, he is confronted by a will and a force which has always mastered him, and which always enforces most wholesome lessons.

P. S .- Since the above was written we have seen an account of the affair in the Charlotte papers, which will be found on our local page.

Hold Them to the Record. The following sensible article from the last number of the Wilson Advance speaks unmistakably the line of fight to be made by the Democratic party of North Carolina during the campaign of 1876. Says the Ad-

"The bold-faced hypocrisy and deception practiced by the Radica newspapers and stump speakers during the Convention campaign last summer must not be lost sight of.— The voters, who were deceived by them, can now see the falsity of their charges and the utter unreliability of their promises. They cared nothing for the good of the State. Their only object was to carry the election and reap the spoils of office. It was a fortunate day for North Carolina, when they failed in their wicked purpose, and there is no better way to expose their duplicity and wick edness of Radicalism than to recur to their course in the campaign referred to. Honest men will not follow the leaders of a party accused and con-victed of deception and fraud. On hese charges, the Radical leaders stand condemned out of their own mouths, The voters can now see that all their predictions and charges were based upon a false foundation. If they plead ignorance, they are not fit to lead. If they acknowledge their own wickedness, they are self-convicted hypocrites. In either di-lemma, they are totally unworthy the confidence of the people."

It will be recollected how the Radcal leaders reared and ranted on the subject of the restrictions. They proclaimed every where that they were not binding and would not be regarded. They charged that they were a trick, and were attached to he Convention bill to mislead and leceive the people. The Democratic andidates denied the charge and edged themselves to abide by these rictions in every particular. What was the result? Which party nowed itself worthy of the public confidence? Let the record speak. The very first act of leading Radical elegates was to protest against the restrictions. Every democrat stood promise, and cheerfully took the oath to observe them, and sacredly kept that oath. Now which party ought the people to trust in the future? How can these Radical leaders go before the people, and again ask their confidence.

On the subject of the expenses of the Convention, the same Radical leaders raised a great hue and cry. They declared that it would cost the State $500,000. This the Democratic press and candidates everywhere denied, and told the people the cost would not exceed at the out-side $50,-000. The object of the Radicals was to frighten the timid by parading before them the tremendous cost of a Convention. Well, the Convention met and adjourned, and the whole cost did not reach $33,000-quite an insignificant sum compared to $500, 000! Wo, unto you, hypocrites, for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but within full of all uncleanness. Will any voter be deceived by you a second Another favorite charge with them was that the Democrats would abolish the homestead provision, if they got a majority of delegates. This was their trump card, and no doubt they did make some votes by continually harping upon this hobby. The result has proved that they were trying to de-ceive the poor man, and induce him vote with the negroes to put them in power. The only attempt to interfere in any manner with the homestead was made by the Radicals, and the Democrats, true to their oath, voted in a solid body against all propositions of the kind. These leaders knew they were practicing a deception, when they were crying "danger to the homesteads." The veil of hypocrisy has been torn from their faces by the facts of history, and they cannot expect to mislead any white man on such a flimsy pretex again. They are self-convicted, and the other charges which they made during the campaign proved as groundless as the above. We will recur to this subject again, and not only show the hollowness and wickedness of all their charges, which were but sounding brass and tinkling cymbal, but we will show the great and inestimable advantages to all the people of North Carolina, proposed amendments to the constitution will confer.

A RUNAWAY MATCH .- A gentleman who is just back home from Spartanburg, S. C., tells us of the marriage of a Mr. Brown and a Miss Black, in that place Sunday last .-They are both from Pacolet, Sparfrom the lady's home and gone to Fair Forest to be married, the bride expectant riding a mule. The minster there refused, however, to marry them, and they rode all the way to Spartanburg, a distance of fifteen miles, preceded by a runner who made all the necessary arrangements o have them married the moment they got there, before the old folks have time to return from church, learn of the escapement and give chase. Their plans were successful, and they were duly married by Rev. J. L. Vass. It is such dermination as this which, like faith, has power to remove mountains." -Charlotte Observer.

sides, the papers were given to the Chief Justice who will render his opinion on the 3d of January ensuing. This trial is an endea vor by the boudholders of the road to do away with the late appointment of Judge Bond of one Harry Tyson, of Balti-more, as Receiver of this road vice W. C. Wickham, the appointment of Tyson and the removal of Wickham being wholly against the wishes of the bondholders and the citizens of Virginia generally. A correspondent of the National Republican, writing from Alexandria, says of the affair: "This case presents some features that, if not novel, are somewhat un-common. The Chesapeake and Ohlo railroad becoming insolvent, and failing to pay the interest on its first and second mortgage bonds, the trus-tees, Wm. Orton, Wm. Butler Dun-can, Philo P. Calhoun and Mr. Kitchen, representing the bondhol-ders, chiefly New York capitalists gave notice, through their attorneys that they would, on a certain date, file a bill in Judge Bond's court, sitting at Richmond, Va., asking for the appointment of a receiver. On the day appointed the parties appeared in court and filed their bill, and, to the surprise of all Richmond, as it would seem, Judge Bond appointed his old friend Harry Tyson, of Baltimore, receiver. By a curious coinci-dence, for it could not have been anything else, Harry Tyson was in Richmond on that yery day, armed and equipped with a bond, signed by Washington Booth and other friends, and in every way satisfactory to His Honor, Judge Bond-another singular coincidence. A man meets his neighbor, and the first question is, "How are you?" or "How is your health?" The reply frequently is, "Oh I am well, with the exception of a cold." Most persons lightly regard a cold. Reader, do you know that a cold is one of the most dangerous of mailadies? A cold not only clogs up the pores of the entire system, and retards circulation, but it is productive of Catarrh, which is quite apt to lead to Consumption.

"Oh," you say, "it is nothing but a cold in my head." True; but that cold is really a mild form of Catarrh, and if not arrested in its course wil become chronic. Catarrh is one of the most disagreeable, offensive affections in the catalogue of diseases The passage to the nose is obstructed, the sense of smell impaired, and there is a disagreeable sensation of pressure in the head. In the more advanced stages, there is a discharge having an offensive odor. If the disease be allowed to continue in its course, thick, hard incrustations will form in the head, the bones of which sometimes become softened and break away in Why will persons continue to suffer from such an annoving, disgusting disease, when they can just as well be cured of it? Dr. Sage' Catarrh Remedy will cure the worst forms of Catarrh; in fact, it is the only sure and safe remedy which has yet been offered to the public. Many harsh, irritating preparations may, for a time, relieve the urgency of the symptoms, but they do not cure the disease. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy s soothing and healing in its effects.

Domestic Miscellany,

Lewis D. Crenshaw, of Richmond, Va., aged 58, died yesterday. A San Francisco dispatch says the news from San Diego denies the reported revolution at San Raphael.

Phillip Gallagher, of Providence, R. I., while drunk attempted to kil his wife, killing his year old child at the time in his wife's arms.

A special to the Savannah News reports a fire at Jasper, Florida. A large portion of the business section of the town has been destroyed.

There was no meeting of the Cabinet vesterday, and unless something turns up there will be none this week. The amount of additional national bank notes issued since November 1st are $1,761,280; total since act of July 14th, 1874, $12,715,975. Theodore M. Vale will succeed Col. Bangs as superintendent of the railway mail service. Bangs resig-Bangs resignation takes effect in February.

Judge Donohue, of New York, decides the recognizances of Tweed's bail on seven recent indictments for felony forfeited.

$644,550 legal tenders were ordered on account of national bank circulation to be issued during the present month. Outstanding legal tenders now ready $372,000,000.

Jonas F. Brown has been arrested at Indianapolis and his stock, valued at $35,000, seized, for failures to make returns and pay special tax as rectifier.

A Quebec dispatch says that detectives were on the track of a person whom they believed to be Tweed. They were obliged to abandon the chase for want of funds. Frank Moulton has instituted a suit against Henry Ward Beecher for $50,- 000 damages. The complaint sets forth malicious prosecution. Mrs. Tilton will be a witness in the case. The boat Minola, from Cincinnati for Memphis, struck an obstruction 40 miles above Memphis. She filled and sunk in 5 minutes. All hands were saved by life boats. The boat and cargo a total loss. The Alabama Legislature met yesterday. The Governor's message is devoted entirely to matters of State interest and makes no reference to National affairs. A report from the Commissioners to settle the State debt will be made in a few days. E. L. Pierson, member of the Legislature from Natchitoches, was shot and instantly killed on Sunday by Mr. Cosgrove, editor of the Vindicator. The difficulty grew out of the abuse of Pierson by Cos grove in his Ex-Gov. Newell, of New Jersey, President of the National Council of the Union League of America, has issued a notice countermanding the meeting ordered to be held in Philadelphia next month, and convening the sub-committees at the Astor House in New York, on Thursday, January 6th, at noon. A dispatch from Utica says that Mary Davis, upon whose evidence Ladoca Fredenburg and her son were sentenced to death on the 31st inst. for murdering an aged cripple, confesses that she swore falsely at the She and her grand-mother, Mrs. Fredenburg, have been committed for murder.

Foreign Miscellany.

A dreadful hurricane occurred on Phillipus' Island on the 30th of November. 250 lives were lost, 3,800 dwellings destroyed and many cattle perished. The crops were ruined. The Italians at St. Davids, Onta-out to work on the canals, have joined the stone cutter's association. refuse to work until their scale of prices is accepted by the contractors. A special from Penang to the London Times says the English now hold all the important positions in the neigh-borhood. The Maharajah Lela has taken refuge in the Seainese Territory. The British power is supreme; only the murderers of Mr. Birch are in

The Chamber of Commerce of London, Ontario, have passed a resolu-tion recommending the adoption by the Government of a policy of incidental protection as the most beneficial for the country under the present circumstances; also for a renewal of reciprocal trade relations with the United States.

The general Postal Union Treaty is going into operation in France on the 1st of January next. The Postal Union rates of 5 cents per 1 ounce on letters, 2 cents for postal cards, 2 cents for newspapers each if not ex ceeding 4 ounces, and 2 cents per ounces for other printed matter and patterns of merchandise; effect on the date named for correspondence from the United States addressed to France and Algeria, and also for correspondence addressed to Spain, including the Balerie Isles, the Canary Islands, the Spanish possessions on the northern coast of Africa and the postal establishments of Spain on the western coast of Morocco.

Fore gn Affairs. LONDON, Dec. 28.—The Times give prominence to the following: "We are glad to be able to corroborate the contradiction of the statement that Spain has violated the obligations of neutrality by enlisting Italians for the army in Cubs.

The army from Catalonia, numbering forty thousand, has arrived at Navarre.

A Paris dispatch says that Queen Isabella has the measles. A Madrid dispatch confirms the death of de Rodas.

NORTH CAROLINA.

The Wilson Advance says that mule thieves are depredating in that The Charlotte Observer suspended or the holidays until to-morrow morning. The tournament at Toisnot last Thursday is said to have been a pleasant affair. No "John Kooners" (whatever that is) were allowed on the streets of Wilmington on Christmas day. The Sheriff of New Hanover gave the prisoners in the county jail a sumptuous dinner on Christmas day. The Roanoke News records a shootng affair between two men at Garysburg one day last week. No damage done, and the affair was afterwards amicably adjusted. Says the Charlotte Observer: "On Friday one car of a freight train on the Charlotte, Columbia & Augusta Railroad was thrown from the track between this city and Fort Mill .-There were 20 cases of matches in the ar, and these ignited and caught a eg of powder, which exploded, burni g the car and its load."

Moody and Sankey Revival.

A Philadelphia dispatch, under late of Sunday, says: Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather, Moody and Sankey's services were largely attended to-day. At the morning service Mr. Moody said it was the most encouraging meeting he had held in this country. He discoursed upon the Bible and referred to many texts to illustrate his sermon, which the audience also reerred to in their Bibles, which they had been requested to bring. He advised his hearers to study the Bible. and to buy the handsomest ones they could get, and they would then prize them more perhaps. In the afternoon the service was for ladies. Mr. Moody preached upon Noah and the irk, and showed how the patriarch, with his family, was saved, when all the rest in the world were drowned. In the evening he preached the same sermon to men. These two sermons were certainly the best he has yet de ivered in this city, and apparently had great effect. The inquiry rooms were crowded both afternoon and evening. Mr. Sankey's singing, if anything, improves, and is listened to with great pleasure by those not religiously inclined. The New York Commercial Adveriser cities several instances showing he great shrinkage of rents in that city. A store on Grand street near Broadway which has heretofore rented for $8,000 per year, has been ren-ted for $5,000 for the first year, begin-ning May 1st and $6,000 per annum for each of the two years following; another store in the same neighborood, which was formerly leased at $15,000 per annum, has been taken for the coming year at $9,000, and $12,000 is the best offer that can be gotten for another store which in more prosperous times rented for $25,000. In rents for ordinary property there are indications of a decline compared with last year, but in no case so marked as in the cases above named.

Galen and Hippocrates gained immortal fame as physicians. Their names will live forever, but the remedies which they used are either discarded or forgotten. From their time to the present day new remedies and so-called specifics have been offered to the public, have been tried and found wanting, but now the untiring efforts of our physicians seem crowned with success in the production of the celebrated Home Stomach Bit-ters. Whenever they have been tried, they have invariably produced a beneficial effect on all diseases of the bowels and liver.

The Binghamton Times claims that the Detroit Free Press man's name is Brout, and that Binghamton is his native town. The Times is mistaken. His name is G. B. Lewis, and the most prominent incident in his life, except his birth, was the blowing up he got on a steamboat, which he says was never equalled by anything his mother-in-law has said
